Part II: Please write a short essay about a situation where you volunteered your time and talents to help someone in need this past school year. If possible, it should be about something you did that was not required. The essay should include how you were affected by the situation and how you may have affected others by your actions.

The essay should be 2-3 paragraphs in length and can be typed or hand written on a separate sheet of paper. It is important that the student does the work. We will look at content, grammar, and how your actions helped others.

After finishing Part I and Part II, please return the completed application to:
